Coastal cleanup rescheduled

A number of clubs, school groups, businesses, industry and individuals have already pre-registered for the Saturday, Sept. 19 annual Coastal Cleanup. This has been rescheduled according to Cindy Woods, Department of Marine Resources Public Affairs officer and chairman of the Mississippi Marine Debris Task Force.

"Task force members voted Friday to reschedule the cleanup campaign to Saturday, Sept. 26," Woods said. "Weather conditions, due to the development of a tropical depression in the Gulf, were expected to deteriorate."

Waveland approves insurance contract

BY BETSY GAGNET
The Waveland Board of Aldermen at Wednesday night's regular meeting approved entering into a one year contract with MS Select Health Care to provide group health insurance for the city.

The city's current policy is set to terminate on Sept. 30, and city officials hope to have the new coverage in place for Oct. 1.

In other news from Waveland, sealed bids were opened on the Dane Street and Beach Boulevard drainage project and on the annual culverts. The bids were taken under advisement.

The board approved renewal of the Community Education Contract for FY99, the FY99 City County Community Education Program budget and the continuation of the in-kind services for the Community Education office.

Hancock equine center contractor selected; ground breaking soon

BY ED LEPOMA

Moran Hauling Inc., of Kiln, has been selected to build Hancock County's Livestock Arena, and groundbreaking ceremonies will be announced soon.

The Hancock County Equine and Livestock Facility Board opened bids on the project Aug. 27, and five firms bid on construction. The bid package called for seven alternatives, but the basic bid was for construction of the covered arena, stalls for animals, a concession area and public restrooms.

According to the board's attorney, Bill Frisbie, the total contract, with some alternatives to the design, puts the basic contract awarded to Moran at $504,040, but Frisbie was also authorized to negotiate some other design changes with Moran, which could add another $30,000 to the cost of the facility.

Frisbie said the contract calls

Feud developing over emergency responses

BY ED LEPOMA

Hancock County supervisors have initially sided with Casino Magic over the casino's rights to have employees act as first responders in medical emergencies arising at its properties.

LaDonna Hamilton, who works as enlistment manager for Casino Magic in Bay St. Louis, said the casino is at odds with American Medical Response (AMR), which claims it is the only emergency medical firm authorized to operate in Hancock County.

"They as much as told us, if we as much as put a hand aid on someone we are in violation of the (county) ordinance and would be subject to fines," said Hamilton.

Hamilton said Casino Magic last July equipped its casinos in Bay St. Louis, Biloxi and Bossier City, La., with automatic external defibrillators (AEDs) to treat victims of sudden cardiac arrest, and have spent considerable money training 14 security officers to use the new devices.

She said AMR has offered to provide two persons per shift at $50 an hour, and that would

Pass okays budget

BY ED LEPOMA

Pass Christian's Board of Aldermen whizzed through a three-page agenda in a little over an hour Tuesday night, adopting a budget for next year and acting on a number of other issues.

The budget's approval was a mere formality since the Board had held a public hearing on proposed spending on Sept. 8, and no one showed up to protest. That's mainly because the budget provides all city employees with an across-the-board pay raise amounting to four percent. Veteran police and firemen will also be recognized through an incentive pay scale adopted by aldermen. The salary of the five aldermen and Mayor Billy McDonald will stay at present levels.

The budget adopted Tuesday night sets city spending at $7.3 million next year compared to the $6.95 million spent last year. It reduces property taxes next year by one mill or $1 for every $1,000 of assessed property value for residents living within the city.

Besides funding the raises, the budget will also allow the city to hire a full-time purchasing agent for the first time. Al-

Construction to close Waveland Avenue

BY BETSY GAGNET

A construction project scheduled to begin this week will require that much of Waveland Avenue between Highway 90 and Central Avenue be closed to traffic for up to 14 days.

The Waveland Board of Aldermen approved awarding the Waveland Avenue culvert replacement project to low bidder Colom Construction in the amount of $50,496. The work will take place on Waveland Avenue between Beth Court and Hubbard Street.

The project is anticipated to begin as early as Thursday Sept. 24. However, the start date is dependent upon completion of all technical documents, pre-construction conference and the issuance of the notice to proceed, said Public Works Director Ray Eaton. Eaton added that weather conditions will also dictate the construction start date.

Eaton said residents should be on the lookout for detour signs which will be the signal that construction is underway.

"The detour and directional signs will be installed at the beginning of construction," said Eaton. "Once the signs are up, the detour is in effect."

The project involves replacing existing culverts with larger, new culverts which will facilitate and improve drainage.

For more information on street closings, contact the Waveland Public Works Department at 467-9248.

Detour Routes

Northbound traffic:

•All trucks will be detoured to Nicholson Avenue via Central Avenue.

•Cars will be detoured off of Waveland Avenue at Sycamore Street to the following route:

A secondary detour will be set up off of Waveland Avenue at Rue De La Salle to the following route:

(The secondary detour is only for those residents living in the area blocked by construction.)

Southbound traffic:

•No trucks or through traffic will be allowed southbound

Master plan development

P&H steadily improving airport

BY ED LEPOMA

Port and Harbor officials have taken a quiet, but important first step towards developing a master marketing plan for Stennis International Airport.

The little, sleepy air strip off Hwy. 603 has steadily been making improvements needed to attract more business, and consultants say the airport's potential is unlimited.

The Port and Harbor Commission held a 2 p.m. public hearing Sept. 10 to hear from consultants hired to develop the master plan, but Commission members and Gene Phillips, one of the airport's fixed based operators, and the Echo were the only parties to attend the presentation. Consultants told the group there would be plenty more time along the way for the public to comment on suggested plans.

The airport has received a grant of $103,500 from the Federal Aviation Commission to undertake the development plan that will cost a total of $115,000. The P&H, which runs the Port Bienville Industrial Park and Stennis Airport will pay the remainder of the cost.

Innovated potter headlines Bay's 'A Place of Art VII'

The Old Town Bay St. Louis Merchants Association announces the innovative potter, Talle Johnson, has agreed to be the featured artist in A Place of Art VII.

Johnson, of Biloxi, has been an instructor and artist in residence at William Carey College since 1993 and has been a part of A Place of Art since the festival's inception. He is instrumental in encouraging his students to participate in exhibits such as this as a part of their education.

He uses art to assist his students in achieving their goals, expressing what they know and what is familiar to them. The students at the William Carey art department now have the experience of being taught by studio artists and are not only instructed in painting, sculpting and pottery, they are taught survival skills by how they can use their abilities and emotions to Slidell Cultural Center.

He has sold to galleries in Atlanta, Chattanooga, Nashville, Washington D.C. and Memphis and has worked for the Tennessee Arts Commission and juried individual artist grants for the Mississippi Arts Commission.

Talle has created the signature piece for A Place of Art VII that is truly innovative.

Mary Carpenter of the Merchants Association and A Place of Art committee member said, "The Mississippi Gulf Coast is lucky to have this multi-talented artist, but A Place of Art is truly thrilled that he would take the time to produce such an exceptional piece."

Recently the art students at William Carey College have competed in arts competitions throughout the state and won as many honors as those from larger universities and colleges thus establishing a respected arts program.

A few of the honors Johnson has been awarded are the Peter Anderson Memorial Potter's Award in 1997.

He recently took part in a Two Man Show at the Eastern Shore Art Center in Fairhope, Ala. and Pottery Invitational (invited from Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi) at the

Control burning popular but risky

By Mark Jamieson
Hancock County Forester

(Third in a continuing series on prescribed burning)

In this series of articles we're addressing the question: "Why can't you come right out and do my burning?" Today, we'll look at the importance of planning.

Burning is a tricky — and potentially dangerous — business. Almost all of the time, burns are successfully conducted with no problems, but burners have to contend with two possibilities: an escaped fire and damage from smoke.

Many things can go wrong — especially on burns conducted on the spur of the moment without proper planning. Burning crews are often under pressure from landowners, who don't understand the dangers involved, to do just that.

The Forestry Commission has established regulations to ensure burns are carefully planned and conducted in accordance with legal requirements. Certain experienced and trained employees are designated "burn planners." They must prepare a burn plan in advance and have it notarized and approved by their district office before the burn can be conducted.

The burn planner has to visit the site to determine, first of all, if the burn can be safely conducted — some can't. He must prescribe firelane placement and firing techniques and the parameters of many factors that must exist during the burn — weather conditions, time of day, season of the year, and soil moisture, to name a few.

One of the most important — and variable — factors is wind direction. Most county foresters file burning plans by the needed wind direction. On days when burning conditions are favorable and the wind is from the north, he pulls his "North Wind" fire, determines which plan in that file is highest priority, and plans his day's work accordingly.

Fire can be an effective and economical forest management tool if used properly and carefully, or it can be a destructive force if used carelessly.

We want to keep it as a tool in our "bag of tricks," so we must plan carefully and burn safely. This takes time and patience — on the part of both burning crews and landowners.

Long Beach make arrest in capital rape case

Long Beach Police have arrested Daniel Ray Callahan, 45, of 623 Forrest Drive, Long Beach on the charge of capital rape.

The charge, according to Detective Sergeant Fred Retting, stems from an investigation into allegations from the Department of Humand Services. Bond was set at $1 million dollars by Justice Court Judge Melvin Ray.

Callahan is being held in the Harrison County Adult Detention Center while awaiting court action.

Task force reports arrest

BY B.R. HAWKINS

Multi-Area Drug Task Force Director Shane Corr reports several recent drug-related arrests.

Corr said officers arrested 21-year old Brian Keith Minton Saturday, Aug. 8 at approximately 9:45 a.m. pm charges of prescription forgery. Bond was set at $5,000.

Bruce W. Geddie, 35, of 6131 East Desoto Street, Bay St. Louis was arrested Monday, Sept. 14 on a charge of possession of controlled substance. Bond was set at $5,000. Corr said Geddie had previously been charged with felony DUI and placed in custody and was being held in the Hancock County Jail.

Later, following a visitation Geddie was additionally charged with felony possession of marijuana. Corr said Sheriff's Deputy Kenneth James discovered the marijuana in Geddie's shoe.

"As of July 1, 1998 anyone who is housed in a county or state facility and found to be in possession of any controlled substance," Corr explained, "is automatically charged with a felony."

Also, officers arrested Michael Lee McDowell, 45, and Dennis Nelson, 39) both of the Catahoula Community on Thursday, Sept. 17 for sale of a controlled substance: Crack Cocaine and possession of a controlled substance: Crack Co-came respectively.

Corr said officers executed a "buy-bust" operation at McDowell's address. "Agent purchased the Crack Cocaine from McDowell," Corr said. "Nelson attempted to escape the house on foot and was apprehended by agents."

Both men are being held in the Hancock County Jail. McDowell is under $5,000 bond and Nelson is under $2,500 bond. Corr said their trail date is tentatively schedule Oct. 13.

Corr said the agents were assisted by the county's Special Operations Detail (S.O.D.). Agent Jeff Hair and Mike Byrd are in charge of the investigation.

Looking on are, from left, Michael Rubenstein, executive director Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum, Hu Meena, president of Cellular South, Mrs. Perian Conerly, widow of Charlie Conerly, and Lulu Maness, administrator at the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum.

Fan voting to help determine state's best college football player

Cellular South has announced new developments for the Conerly Trophy, awarded every December to Mississippi's best college football player.

The 1998 Conerly Trophy presented by Cellular South represents the first time that fan voting will be used to help determine Mississippi's best college football player.

Fan voting by telephone kicked off Sept. 5. Fans may vote for their favorite Mississippi college football player by dialing 1-900-VOTE-888.

Each call costs the caller 99 cents, with proceeds beyond expenses benefiting the Mississiippi Sports Hall of Fame.

Fan voting will be weighted proportionately with the existing media voting; fan voting will account for no more than 25 percent of the total selection process.

The Conerly Trophy winner will be announced at a dinner at the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 3. The presentation is sponsored by Cellular South.

According to Hu Meena, president of Cellular South, "In addition to fan voting for the first time, Cellular South is pleased to be the first corporate sponsor of the Conerly Trophy. We believe the Conerly Trophy is the premier athletic award in the state, and we are honored to be associated with first class entities, like the Conerly Trophy and the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum."

Meena continued, "Charlie Conerly made a name for himself and our state as one of the great NFL quarterbacks of all time. Cellular South, a Mississippi based company, is serving more Mississippians with wireless service than any other provider. Cellular South succeeds in highly competitive world of college football. Along with many other fans, we are looking forward to an exciting season of Mississippi collegiate football."

"CUEVAS' QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

This past week our Rotarian friends from Pass Christian held a joint meeting with the Bay Rotary Club.

It was good to get together once again with the Pass Christian Rotary members. Bay St. Louis Rotary held a joint meeting in the Pass last year.

As the meeting ended, LeRoy Lizana, a retired long-time superintendent of education from the Pass Christian School District, asked if I would try to give him some help on a retirement volunteer project.

LeRoy, through the years, was a frequent visitor to the Bay Rotary Club making up meetings. Like myself, Lizana is one of those folks who has some lengthy perfect attendance in Rotary.

LeRoy is now involved with SCORE's Gulf Coast Chapter 130, as a business counselor.

As business activities have increased along the Coast in recent years, so have business ventures. This has increased the number of folks requesting assistance from SCORE.

LeRoy said SCORE could use more business counselors in the Hancock County area of the Coast.

He realizes there are a lot of retired business folks, and if someone is interested in the volunteer organization, they can give SCORE a call at 863-4449, or reach him at 452-2253, for further information.

SCORE is a very important organization along the Coast and volunteers can give as much or as little time as they would like, Lizana tells me.

On Friday night, a special tribute will be given to longtime friend Geraldine Lang, a person who has for many years been involved in community activities.

Always concerned for the "little man," Mrs. Lang has dedicated all of her efforts in helping others, from the very young to the very old.

A group of four parishioners from Mrs. Lang's church, St. Rose de Lima, Mary V. Clark, Clementine Williams, Margaret Hicks and Tom Farve are organizing the Lang tribute.

It will take place at the Hancock County Civic Center, Longfellow Road, beginning at 7 p.m., Friday, Sept. 25.

The many community friends of Mrs. Lang are invited and encouraged to come. A reception will immediately follow the tribute.

Once again the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce will be involved with the telephone book recycling along with BellSouth and others.

This recycling project gives our many schools an opportunity to pick up a few dollars on the number of old telephone directories collected by students.

The recycling program has been very successful in recent years and should be so once again.

It will not be too long before BellSouth will be issuing the new directories, and then the recycling project will be underway.

I am sure many students have already make requests for the old directories, so they can bring them to school during the designated time.

We will be giving you more information as the project nears.

On Thursday, Sept. 24, once again at Gulfside United Methodist Assembly, Beach Boulevard, Waveland, there will be a Hancock County Job Fair.

The Job Fair is co-sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Shalom Community Development Corporation and will take place from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

This is a free opportunity to showcase your business to the community and share an overview of the skills required to obtain a position in your company.

All businesses in Hancock County are encourage to participate, and one does not have to have employment openings to participate.

The reason for the Job Fair is to provide citizens with information about business employment requirements. There will be door prizes to be given away at participants' booths.

I am hoping there will be a lot of folks who will drop in and get a view of many of the businesses in our area.

For further information, give the chamber office at call at 467-9048.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

What do correctional officers do for Hancock County?

To the Editor:

We, as correctional officers of Hancock County, maintain the welfare and the security of inmates. We transport inmates to doctor appointments, to hospitals for testing and guard the inmates during admission.

We are on call 24 hours a day. With all of our other duties and stress related to the jail, we transport inmates to court and back again, including transport to Harrison County.

We often house lunacy patients in our facility and must care for them. We also transport these lunacies to court, Gulf Oaks and to Whitfield in Jackson.

We fill in for bailiffs at justice, youth, circuit and chancery courts and also for supervisor meetings. We assist the road officers in road blocks when needed, help evacuate citizens during natural disasters, work the shelter and care for the people there.

When charity functions take place, they use trustees from the jail and use one or more officers from the jail to man these functions.

With all of this, when we meet someone and we are asked where we work, people always say, "Oh, you're just a jailer," like we don't count.

If it was not for us, the correctional officers, who would handle all of these jobs, watch over the inmates, care for lunacies and, most of all, look out for you, the citizens of Hancock County?

Sincerely yours,

Larry Willis
The Correctional Officers

Reader says top Port & Harbor officials make too much and deputies not enough

Dear Editor:

If money is so tight in Hancock County, why are we paying the director of Port and Harbor $75,000 and his assistant $60,000 a year? Really, to run this one-horse port? This is not the port of New Orleans.

We're paying way too much for way too little. Who would you rather pay that kind of money to, the man you may need to call on in an emergency or some guy running a little port in our little county? Really no big decision for me.

Don't you think some of the money given to these two men in raises this past year should have been given to the men who put their lives on the line for you? Our policemen (deputy sheriffs) deserve a raise. They are grossly underpaid, and the other two are grossly overpaid.

Sincerely,

Dory Thian
Bay St. Louis

Editor's note: The Hancock County Port & Harbor executive director's salary is $73,400 and his assistant's is $59,040. The Port & Harbor Commission is self-sufficient and generates its own revenues from tenant operations.

Is gambling really a 'Mississippi Miracle'?

Residents of Mississippi:

Have we really gone so far? Have we really stooped so low as to refer to gambling as a "miracle?" The "Mississippi Miracle" is no miracle at all. Instead, it is a source of revenue.

A "miracle," according to sacred scripture, occurs when an apparent law of nature has been broken, when an extraordinary and otherwise inexplicable event takes place and God is glorified.

A miracle is a physical sign in this world from God, God's great plan of reconciling to Himself a fallen cosmos.

A miracle is a revelation which builds faith and has the power to save. It restores health or life. It reveals God's inner nature.

For years I remained indifferent towards gaming, even from time to time working in the casinos. I thought, "This isn't so bad, we all have good jobs and health insurance."

It was only after I realized that so many people in the area would regard it as a "miracle," that I became so offended. Have we all gone mad to refer to gambling as something sacred from God?

I'm sure that news of this "miracle" will spread fast, not only through the state, but through the country and through the world. People in other countries will say "What? Is there an apparition going on there?"

No, there is no law of nature being broken. No one is being miraculously healed as they pass a particular slot machine. It's only gambling.

People of Mississippi beware. The promotion of the "Mississippi Miracle" is a beckoning to the wrath of God. Remember the Titanic? How many people probably said that God Himself couldn't sink her.

Casinos offer health insurance. God restores life.

In the event that another major hurricane strikes the Mississippi Gulf Coast, or some other catastrophe strikes your family, I can only hope that you will put your faith in God and not the casinos.

Sincerely,
Myra Broussard
Biloxi

Resident says she is not the person in Court News

To the Editor:

For the second time this year someone with the exact same name as mine is listed in your Court News (Sept. 13).

If you must print this information, at least put more identification other than just a name. It is very embarrassing to have people think I have been fined for no drivers license and not tag when it was not me.

In a call to the Justice Court I found that this person has a different date of birth and lives in Pearlinton.

Including a date of birth or address will make sure you embarrass the right person, since this seems to be the intent of printing this information.

Review of discharges

All of the military services maintain a discharge review board with authority to change, correct or modify discharges or dismissals that were not issued by a sentence of a general court-martial. The discharge review board also has authority to address medical discharges.

A veteran (or, if the veteran is deceased or incompetent, the surviving spouse, next of kin or legal representative) may apply for a review of discharge using a Department of Defense Form 293. If more than 15 years have passed since discharge, then a Department of Defense Form 149 should be used.

Discharges issued as a result of unauthorized absence (AWOL) in excess of 180 days normally precludes the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) from granting benefits regardless of the action taken by a discharge review board.

The veteran can file with the VA to make a determination if there were compelling circumstances for the absences. Boards for the correction of military records also may consider such cases.

Veterans with disabilities incurred or aggravated during active military service may qualify for medical or related benefits regardless of separation of character of service.

Veterans separated administratively under other than honorable conditions may request that their discharge be reviewed for possible upgrade, provided they file their application within 15 years of the date of separation.

Questions regarding the review of a discharge may be addressed to the Jackson VA Regional Office, 1-800-827-1000.

Nereids fund raiser offers something for every taste

It's time once again for the ever popular Krewe of Nereids' Fish Fry and Dance, featuring Mardi Gras-style entertainment by the Krewe members.

There will be a whole lot of partying going on Saturday, Sept. 26 at the Hancock County Civic Center on Longfellow Road in Bay St. Louis. The krewe will host its annual family fish fry 4-7 p.m. followed by the krewe entertainment and a dance.

Bring your appetite for a flavorful dinner of crisply fried fish, hush puppies, green beans, potato salad, garlic bread and iced tea for $6.50. Take-out orders and homemade desserts will be available.

In addition to the feast, a show of full-throttle live entertainment featuring multi-talented krewe members begins at 7:30 followed by the dance band Show Boat from Biloxi. For $12.50 per person, guests can boogie to the sounds of the first-rate band until midnight. Set-ups will be furnished, BYOB.

Throughout the evening, guests will have an opportunity to bid on a variety of unique silent and live auction items and participate in the $1,000 raffle.

The annual fish fry and dance is one of the major fund raisers for the Krewe of Nereids which sponsors an annual Mardi Gras parade in the Bay-Waveland area. 1999 will be the 33rd year for the krewe.

Tickets for the fish fry, dance and raffle are available in advance from a Nereids member or at the door Sept. 26. The public is invited. For information, call Patsy Dubuisson at 467-0244.

For seniors, playing it safe could actually be risky

For people who want to make the most out of life, the time is now. A 65-year-old today has a 56 percent chance of living 15 more years. And the chance of reaching 85 is 36 percent.

That's wonderful news. So why isn't everyone smiling? Because some people will have more years than money left.

Even complacent smilers with money tucked into CDs may see inflation erode their ability to maintain their lifestyle.

Consider this sobering equation: Someone retiring today on a $40,000 annual income will need $106,000 a year in 20 years just to maintain their standard of living if inflation averages five percent.

Is this downward spiral unavoidable?

No, according to investment strategist Porter Pierpoint Morgan of Liberty Financial Companies. But of all the investment options, Morgan says only one has truly beaten inflation over time — stocks.

This leads Morgan to an unavoidable conclusion: Everyone, regardless of age, must accept some risk in their investment portfolio.

Morgan appreciates how investors become less tolerant of risk as they approach 65. But he says that should not mean putting all their money into CDs.

He suggests this formula: Subtract your age from 100. What's left is how much you should have in stocks. Using this rule, a 65-year-old might have 35 percent of total assets in stocks and stock mutual funds.

Stock mutual funds are Morgan's suggestion for the highly risk-sensitive. Investors can diversify by investing in several different funds.

This lessens the impact of one falling stock or group of stocks. And the funds' professional management increases the chances of picking more winners than losers.

Once stock mutual funds are added to a portfolio, Morgan suggests these guidelines:

- * Reinvest dividends. It's called compounding, letting investment income grow. If you don't need extra income for living expenses, let the returns accumulate.

- * Explore growth and income funds. If you do need extra income, growth and income funds and utilities funds usually pay regular dividends for income and they participate in the stock market.

- * Invest regularly. Investing the same amount every month buys more shares when prices are low and less when prices are high, decreasing overall average cost.

With current market valuations being high, scaling back investment dollars has never been more important.

- * Think long term. Don't be concerned with the day-to-day fluctuations of the stock market. Find the right investments for your needs and stick with them.

Burke announces for alderman, Ward 4

Ross C. Burke of Waveland has announced his candidacy for Fourth Ward alderman in the November 3 primary election as a Republican candidate.

"I believe that the residents of the Fourth Ward need a continuation of an experienced businessman as alderman. The city is experiencing rapid growth and needs someone that can help guide its continued growth and progress," Ross said.

A resident of Waveland since 1982, Burke's candidacy is based on his many years of experience in business management. He is the owner of Technical Support Services, Inc., a computer service and support firm, and vice president of Advance Fire Protection Systems, Inc. Both businesses are based in Waveland and have been in operation for many years.

Burke is a member of the American Legion Post 77, vice commander of VFW Post 3253, past member of the Waveland Civic Association and treasurer of Triton Carnival Association.

He was an officer in the Bay-Waveland Elks and is active in several civic projects. He served in the United States Air Force for four years during the Korean conflict and was honorably discharged.

Ross C. Burke

He is married to the former Betty Claire Helm of New Orleans. They have three children, Gregory Zimek, Barbara Louise Key and Robert Zimek and five grandchildren.

Saucier seeks Fourth Ward Alderman seat

Santo Saucier, Jr., 39, of Waveland has announced his candidacy for Waveland Alderman of Ward 4 in the Nov. 3 Democratic primary.

Saucier is a lifetime resident of Waveland. He is a 1977 graduate of Bay Senior High and a 1982 graduate of Delgado College in New Orleans.

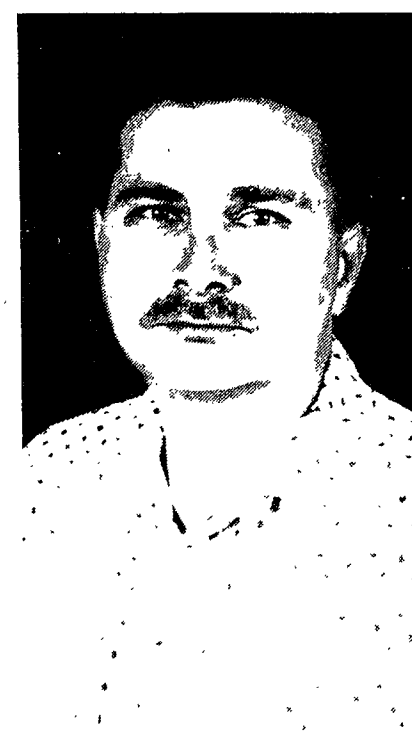

In a written announcement released this week Saucier said, in seeking the alderman's seat, he felt he could communicate with the citizens and children of Ward 4 and with City Hall.

"If elected I will work toward drainage improvement and work to get streets repaired," said Saucier. "I would like to improve the playgrounds for the children of Waveland."

"We, the citizens of Waveland, need to provide more recreation and activities for our children in Waveland," he said. "We need to keep them active and involved in our community projects for kids."

Saucier is the son of the late Nieza Saucier and Santo Saucier, Sr. He and his wife Carlene have two children, Anthony, 10, and Matthew, 7. They are members of St. Clare Catholic Church.

Saucier has been a board member and a coach in Waveland Little League for six years and has also coached soccer in the Bay organization for three years.

SANTO SAUCIER, JR.

land Little League for six years and has also coached soccer in the Bay organization for three years.

"If elected, I will work hard to improve the quality of life in Waveland," said Saucier. "I feel I am qualified and dedicated to Waveland Ward 4 to do an outstanding job for its citizens."

PRCC alumni

Pearl River College's Alumni Association Executive Committee will include five new members from Pearl River and Hancock counties. Joining the organization arm of the alumni association are, from left, Ann Morris of Poplarville, Tommy Carroll of Waveland, and Lynda Dossett of Picayune. Not pictured are Janet Aime of Waveland and Mark Wallace of Picayune.

Migraine headaches topic of seminar

Migraine headaches will be the topic of a community education seminar presented by Art Kergosien, MD in Hancock Medical Center's Business and Education Classroom at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 22.

"Many people suffer from migraines to an extent which is not necessary," Kergosien said. "With education, we teach ways to prevent migraines by finding what triggers them in an individual."

Many people who think they suffer from migraine headaches actually don't, according to Kergosien. Often tension and sinus headaches can be mistaken as migraines.

With advances in medical technology, physicians understand more than ever before what can cause migraines as well as the most effective way to treat these headaches.

The seminar will explore the causes, prevention and treatment of migraines.

Bay High Tigers win over Hornets, 33-7

BY MAURICE SINGLETON

The Bay High Tigers football team spoiled homecoming for the Poplarville Hornets at T.D. 'Dobie' Stadium on the campus of Pearl River Community College in Poplarville. The Tigers scored in each quarter on Friday night, with two scores in the final quarter enroute to a 33-7 win.

The Tigers offense dictated the tempo of the game with sustained drives and then beat the Hornets with big plays. The Tigers defense performed its usual brand of hard-nosed defense, controlling the line of scrimmage, denying the Hornets offense anything substantial.

The special teams played well, also, scoring two touchdowns, one on a Ronald Brown punt return and the other on a Rendell Haynes kickoff return. The Tigers put together an intense, focused game of football for forty-eight minutes.

"I told them all along that if they put four quarters together we would be successful," said Tigers coach David Baughman after the game. "I've been begging for it (four quarters of solid play) for a year and a half. Tonight we got it."

"We made some mistakes offensively, but defensively we overcame those mistakes. If your defense can force turnovers, you can overcome that. We got a lot of penetration tonight. We stayed in their backfield tonight."

R. Haynes attacked the Hornets backfield like a bounty hunter, sacking their quarterback three times on the night, twice in the same series, netting losses of ten, nine and four yards.

R. Haynes led the Tigers scoring attack with two touchdowns on the night. His first score came in the first quarter on a five-yard run on third down. The score was setup by Bert Hoppood's recovery of a Hornets fumble.

Following a Steven Boudro interception midway through the second quarter, the Tigers put together an impressive drive that started at their own 27-yard line. Quarterback Ty Barrett completed four passes to three different receivers — two to Brent Haynes and one each to R. Haynes and Brown.

Four quarters!

Tigers Coach David Baughman congratulates players for playing four quarters of solid football.

Unfortunately, the drive ended with a Brown fumble at the eight-yard line. A well-rested Tigers defense forced the Hornets to punt, and in a matter of four plays, Brown redeemed himself. The Tigers fastest player started right and then changed direction, scattering fifty-five yards, getting away from three would-be tacklers for the score.

Poplarville finally got on the scoreboard with 5:11 remaining in the third quarter. A Bay High fumble gave the Hornets first and goal from the Tigers two yard line. The Hornets scored on first down, and for a moment it appeared they were back in the game.

But R. Haynes — whose assignments on the night had increased in the absence of Tony Benton due to injury — had other ideas. R. Haynes fielded the ensuing kickoff at his own 35-yard line and broke away from two potential stoppers and raced sixty-five yards for the score.

Ty Barrett led the Tigers fourth quarter scoring attack. The first was a quarterback keeper for 27 yards. The last score of the evening was a 30-yard pass to Brent Haynes in the end zone.

Tim Wright successfully kicked his third point after of the night, giving the Tigers a 33-7 win.

"We spent a lot of time during the week watching films and practicing the plays we thought we could get off against them," explained Baughman. "They relaxed and played good football tonight. We didn't have to play as aggressively as we had been playing. Our defense controlled the line of scrimmage against a physically bigger football team. I am extremely proud of the way we played tonight."

"This was a key win for us. We'll begin district play with some momentum. That means a lot."

Rocks drop nailbitter to Dogs

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws played their second game in five days in about the same poor field conditions. The result was a close 13-7 loss to the Vancleave Bulldogs in Vancleave on Friday night.

The first half belonged to Vancleave as they took advantage of field position and miscues by the Rocks.

The Rocks were on offense to start the game and went three plays and out. The Rock offense played on their heels for the first half and couldn't get anything going.

The offenses of both teams traded the ball back and forth two more times before the Bulldogs had the first extended drive of the first half.

Vancleave mounted an eight play drive on the Rocks but ended having to punt away to SSC.

The Rocks got the ball and had an extended drive that was kept alive by a Vancleave penalty. However, three plays later the Rocks had to punt away.

The Rocks' defense led by Tom Brennan, Cameron Byrne, and Joe Carambat held tough against the Bulldogs and forced them to punt away.

The Rocks got the ball back and tried a reverse throwback to the quarterback. The ball fell incomplete downfield. On the next play the Rocks threw an interception that was picked off by Drew Kite at the Rock 39 yardline.

Three plays later Mark Sexson kept on an option play and scored from 27 yards out for the Bulldogs with 5:50 to go in the first half. Josh Gros kicked the extra point making the score 7-0.

Kris Cannon returned the kickoff back to the Rock 44 yardline to give SSC its best field position of the night.

After three incomplete passes the Rocks had to punt away.

Two plays later, Sexson ran the same option play and kept the ball for a 62 yard scoring run with 3:08 left to play in the first half. Gros' PAT attempt was blocked by Stephen Peterman and the score remained 13-0.

The two teams traded possession to end the half without mounting an extended drive.

The Rock defense came out to play in the second half giving the offense numerous opportunities to put the ball into the endzone.

The defense was led by Byrne, Brennan, Daurio, Peterman, and Carambat.

Brennan started the charge early with a tackle for loss of five yards on quarterback Chad Pylate. Carambat followed that up with a tackle for loss of his own on Gros for another minus five yards.

The Rocks went to the air with Jason Santiago connecting with Patrick Martinez for a gain of 12 yards and a first down. However, the Rocks had to punt three plays later.

The Rock defense held strong forcing the Bulldog offense to trade possessions with the Rocks two more times before the Rocks finally settled into a groove.

SSC mounted a 12-play drive that was helped tremendously by numerous pass interference penalties on the Bulldogs.

The Rocks drove down to the one yardline and called on senior defensive tackle Tom Brennan to gain the tough yardage. Brennan was stuffed for a one-yard loss on his first carry. The second time Brennan got the handoff, he carried the ball and four Vancleave defenders into the endzone.

The PAT attempt by Taylor LaFontaine was good making the score 13-7 with 6:37 left to play in the game.

Brennan led the charge on defense to stop the Bulldogs by stuffing Sexson at the line of scrimmage on a third and ten situation.

Santiago hooked up with Cannon for a 33 yard gain and a first down on the first play from scrimmage. However, five plays later the drive would end on an interception with :31 seconds left in the ballgame.

Vancleave kneeled the ball to preserve the win over the Rock-a-chaws.

Picking a hole

Hancock High School running back Darryel Williams cuts to plow through a hole in the Long Beach High School front line in Friday night games. Hancock lost to Long Beach 14 to 13 in overtime.

Hawks lose in OT

BY B. R. HAWKINS

Tied seven all at the end of regulation play, the Hancock High School Hawks lost by one point in overtime to the undefeated Long Beach Bearcats.

"I can't degrade their win by talking about how badly we played," a disheartened Rocky Gaudin said. "Long Beach deserved to win. We'll have to bounce back next week."

The Bearcat offense lead by 6'3", 215-pound junior quarterback Micky D'Angelo came out throwing. D'Angelo completed four for four passes before wide receiver, Brad McGill ran the ball up the middle to score. The scoring drive took less than two minutes. Paul Woodward's extra point was good and the Bearcats led 7-0.

Hancock took the ball on their 19. A handoff to Darryel Williams, an attempted pass to Trellony Mayfield, and an end-around run by split end Adam Bickett failed to gained the Hawks a first down. QB Josh Whitfield's punt gave the ball back to the Bearcats on the Hawk's 47.

Long Beach started their second series from the Hawk's 47 and lost five yards on the first of innumerable penalties that hobbled both teams.

Hancock's Mark Rush, on second and 15, took advantage of a Bearcat turnover and gave the ball back to his offensive team on the 46 with 5:43 remaining in the first quarter.

A quick penalty and a painful fumble put the ball back in the hands of the Bearcats. Hancock's defensive unit took the field and claimed possession of their home field.

Defensive guard, Stoney Dossett battered his way through the Bearcat's front line to pressure D'Angelo into an incomplete pass. Mark Rush was ahead of D'Angelo's next target, D'Andre Williams, forcing the Bearcat's wide receiver to play defense instead of offense. Hawk's defensive end Trellony Mayfield popped McGill on the 15 halting a 10-yard run gained from D'Angelo's only completion of the series.

On first and 10 at the Hawks 15, Long Beach lost yardage to the Hawk's penetration and their own penalties before kicking away to Chris Goff on fourth and forever.

Goff took the ball on the 10-yard line and ran it back for a hard five yards. Darryel Williams carried the ball forward for seven yards and picked up another one just as the first quarter came to an end.

In the second quarter, Hancock continued to feed their halfbacks, the ball. Williams picked up six. Goff took the ball four more yards. A call for off-sides set them back five. Williams got back four. Whitfield, a short guy standing plenty tall, scrambled for two. Goff busted up the middle and picked up a much needed first down.

With the ball on the 50-yard line, the Hawk's offense moved forward as if they were in familiar territory. In a combination of four plays by Williams, full-back Chris Payne, and Goff the Hawks put the ball in the endzone. Whitfield PAT was good.

Game was tied seven all with 4:55 left in the first half and there it would stay throughout the remainder of the game.

The Hawks won the overtime toss and in one play, a keeper by quarterback Josh Whitfield, put the ball in the end zone to lead 13 to seven. The Bearcats blocked the PAT.

Long Beach followed Hancock's example and put the ball in the endzone with a seemingly effortlessly 10-yard pass to D'Andre Williams. Paul Woodward's extra point made the difference that four quarters of regulation play could not. Hancock High lost by one point in overtime. Long Beach remains undefeated.

Pass Peewee registration extended

The Pass Christian Recreation Peewee Football League will extend its registration until Friday, Sept. 25, said spokesman Chip McDermott.

A league policy change has also been made that all games will be played in the Pass at the McDonald stadium.

The league is for boys ages 5-12.

Persons seeking further information may call the Pass Recreation Department at 452-3304, or 452-3310.

Refund information for cancelled NBA exhibition

Those who purchased tickets for the NBA exhibition game scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 17 at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum may receive a full refund for the tickets.

Ticket holders should return to the place of purchase for their refunds. The exhibition game, which would have pitted the Atlanta Hawks against the New Jersey Nets, was canceled earlier this month due to the fact that no settlement has been reached to date between the NBA and the players.

Smith receives license

Real estate examinations were held for the months of July in Jackson for those persons desiring to enter the field of real estate sales, rentals and other related real estate activities.

Russell Smith of Hancock County successfully completed the salesperson requirements and will now be awarded a salesperson license.

The examination consists of 100 questions prepared by the American College Testing Services (ACT) for real estate license law officials across the United States and Canada. Applicants are questioned concerning the Mississippi real estate law and rules and regulations governing their activities in that vocation.

Commissioner Lenny Sawyer, 5th Congressional District, Gulfport, announces the following have been issued licenses:

Salespersons: Sarah McArthur of Pass Christian and Connie Rainey and Barbara Crawford, both of Hancock County.

Consider both benefits, tax issues when shopping for long-term care

Q. I am in the process of shopping for a long-term care insurance policy. I have narrowed my choice to three policies that I believe I can afford and would give me adequate coverage. However, I am having difficulty choosing between a policy that is tax-qualified versus a policy that is not tax-qualified.

The policy that is not tax-qualified required that I be unable to perform one ADL or activity of daily living (bathing, dressing, transferring from bed to chair, toileting and continence), in order to receive benefits. The tax-qualified policy requires that I be disabled in at least two activities of daily living.

With the tax-qualified plan I can deduct long-term care insurance premiums. The non-qualified plan does not allow me to deduct my premiums. I'm not sure which is more important, deductibility or the plan itself.

A. The simple answer to your last question is that the policy provisions must be deemed more important than tax deductibility. In addition, retirees who have paid off home mortgages and no longer have enough deductions to itemize receive no benefit from deductibility.

Unfortunately, your decision is not quite that simple. There is an additional tax issue. Will any future benefits paid to you be taxable? Benefits paid by the tax-qualified policy are not taxable. The Internal Revenue Service has not issued a statement regarding whether benefits from a non-qualified policy are taxable or not.

The harder it is to qualify for benefits, the less likely you are to receive any benefit at all. But there are a number of variables that may play a role in qualifying for benefits.

Find out who makes the determination regarding your disability on each of the policies you consider. Is it your doctor or an employee of the insurance company?

Look at the ADLs considered in the policy. Some policies list five possible ADLs in defining the level of disability. Others list as many as seven. The greater the number of ADLs considered, the more liberal the policy.

Each policy defines disability in terms of the number of ADLs which you are no longer able to perform, usually from one to three. The federal standards for tax-qualified policies require you to be disabled in at least two of five or six ADLs.

You may wish to review the ADLs listed and the number required with your own doctor to determine what is most reasonable in your situation. Check the library for ratings of the various policies done by Consumer Reports and other consumer guides.

The trade-off between a non-taxable benefit and a less restrictive policy that may be taxable is one only you can measure for yourself. Watch the news for developments that may soon tell us whether benefits from less restrictive non-qualified policies are taxable. This determination will help greatly in analyzing your choice.

As you finalize your selection, look at other policy provisions including care in your home, types of facilities the policy will pay, inflation coverage and how long the benefit lasts. These criteria will also play a major role in how suitable a policy is for your needs.

Advertising group offers help to local organization

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Advertising Federation is currently accepting applications from local, non-profit organizations for its 1998-99 Public Service project.

The group of advertising and marketing professionals are urged through the American Advertising Federation and the Ad Council to accept a group that deals directly with children's issues; however, all non-profit organizations who are striving to benefit and enhance life on the Mississippi Gulf Coast are welcome to apply and will be considered.

Last year's recipient was the Lynn Meadows Discovery Center, Mississippi's only children's museum, located in Harrison County.

Throughout the year, the Ad Federation provided brochures, special event posters and flyers, newspaper and television ads, new letterhead for the center, a web site, as well as volunteer work and special donations.

All of these materials were provided free of charge for the Discovery Center — part of the Ad Federation's commitment to the betterment of our communities.

Agencies and programs Coast-wide are invited to submit their names; information about the organization and reasons why they could benefit from the advertising and marketing expertise of the Ad Federation.

The selection will be made at the end of October with the project being non-profit, non-denominational and non-partisan politically.

To receive an application, contact Kendra Kimmons at 388-9830 or Carter Hoper at 504-5228. Applications must be received no later than Friday, Oct. 16.

Municipal bond funds and money market funds

(Last of a three-part series on mutual fund investment objectives.)

Mutual funds today hold about $5 trillion in assets, yet just more than half of this amount is invested in the stock market. The rest is in such investments as bonds, international securities and money market funds.

In this article we describe the various types of municipal bond funds and money market funds.

Municipal bond funds seek to provide high yields by investing in tax-free municipal bonds. There are two types: state and national.

State municipal bond funds invest in the bonds of a single state, offering income that is exempt from federal as well as state tax for residents of that state.

National municipal bond funds invest in a national mix of municipal bonds, offering federally tax-free income. National and state municipal bond funds each come in two varieties: general municipal bond funds are not restricted to bonds with any particular maturity, or invest in those with maturities of more than five years; and short-term municipal bond funds invest in bonds with maturities of one to five years.

Money market funds come in two varieties: taxable and tax-exempt.

Taxable money market funds seek to maintain stable principal by investing in short-term, high-grade securities sold in the money market. The average maturity of these securities is limited to 90 days or less.

Government taxable money market funds invest primarily in U.S. Treasury securities or other short-term instruments issued or guaranteed by the U.S. government or its agencies.

Non-government taxable money market funds invest in a variety of money market instruments, including certificates of deposit, commercial paper and banker's acceptances.

Tax-exempt money market funds seek tax-free income by investing in municipal securities with average maturities of 90 days or less.

National tax-exempt money market funds seek income that is federally tax-free by investing in short-term municipal securities from a variety of states.

State tax-exempt money market funds invest predominantly in short-term municipal bonds within a single state, providing income that is free of federal and state tax for residents of that state.

Understanding mutual fund objectives not only enables you to match your needs with the right funds for you, it also helps you understand what to expect — and not expect — from any fund you buy.

Cowand to speak in D'head

Lisa Cowand, vice president of the Board of Supervisors and supervisor for District 2 of Hancock County, will be guest speaker for the Diamondhead Business & Professional Association (DB&PA) at the monthly general meeting Thursday, Sept. 24 at 8 a.m. at Park Ten Lanes Bowling Alley in Diamondhead.

The DB&PA annual Merchants Fair will be held Dec. 3, 5-9 p.m. at the Ramada Inn in Diamondhead.

The Merchants Fair has been a great success each year due to the increased participation of Diamondhead merchants and business associates in Hancock County.

All DB&PA members are encouraged to call Joan Contreras at 255-1086 to get details on signing up and reserving display space for the Merchants Fair.

For information in membership for the Diamondhead Business and Professional Association, contact Jon William Ritten at 255-9188.

Bed and Breakfast group organizes, elects officers

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Bed & Breakfast Guild has been formed by 10 properties and elected officers.

Chosen as president by the newly formed group is Dr. Karl Mertz of Long Beach. Vice president is Pat Dunay of Biloxi, and secretary-treasurer is Tony Brugger of Pass Christian.

Mertz owns Red Creek Inn, Vineyard & Racing Stable, which was the Coast's first B&B. Dunay and Brugger (and spouses) own Old Santini House and Harbour Oaks Inn, respectively.

"Our first three goals," said Mertz, "are to produce 50,000 tri-fold, full-color brochures, write and implement a cooperative marketing plan, and begin an annual open house tour of the Coast's historic B&B's."

Mertz added that the brochure will be released to the press, travel writers and tourism outlets, etc., within the next few weeks. "I've also appointed Jennifer Diaz of Green Oaks as marketing committee chairperson," said Mertz.

Other founding members of the B&B Guild are Inn at the Pass, Lofty Oaks Inn, Father

Dr. Karl Mertz

Ryan House, Who's Inn?, Shadowlawn B&B, and The Wilson House Bed & Breakfast.

A copy of the guild's brochure (A Bed & Breakfast Sampler) may be obtained by calling (800) 237-9493. The guild may be contacted at P.O. Box 110, Long Beach, Ms 39560, or by calling Dr. Mertz at (228) 4661.

Equine — Contract let

for construction to be completed within 148 days.

Planned is a steel-fabricated covered arena, which has now been expanded from 200 square feet to 225 square feet by 300 square feet; a 144-square-foot steel frame building with a metal deck; and a 20-square-foot by 56-square-foot concert block building, which will serve as the concession stand and restroom area.

Construction of a Livestock Facility for Hancock County was a priority initially funded by the previous Board of Supervisors, which allocated $200,000 to purchase an 80-acre site off the Kuhn-Dehlsle Road.

The present Board of Supervisors allocated $155,000 for construction, and another $500,000 was made available by the state Agricultural and Commerce Department.

However, before the state released the half-million-dollar grant, the county's Equine and Livestock Facility Board had to draw up design plans, and a business plan to convince state officials that the facility would be viable.

Pass — Okays budget

dermen approved hiring Gayle Vreeland, who had been working as secretary to the fire department, helping with the city's fixed inventory list, and keeping track of workman's compensation claims. Vreeland will continue those duties, but her salary will increase from the present $16,000 a year to about $19,000 a year.

The budget also passes on to residents the last of phased increases mandated by Harrison County's Wastewater and Solid Waste Authority. The charge for garbage pickup will jump from the present $11.50 per month to $12.25.

After a presentation by a consultant, aldermen also voted to stay with Anthem Health Insurance, which provides the majority of city workers with health insurance.

County Comptroller Tammy DiLorenzo said the per person monthly cost jumped by about 10 percent from $157.72 to $173.50, but consultant T.C. Castleberry told aldermen he studied other health plans, and he recommended the city stay with Anthem.

In other business, consulting engineer John Campton of Garner Russell and Associates, Gulfport, suggested that the city withhold final payment for the upgrading of the city's tennis courts behind War Memorial Park.

Campton said his inspection showed some cracks in the newly paved courts, and Aldermen voted to withhold final payment of $4,402 to American Tennis Courts, Inc., of Mobile, Ala., until the situation is remedied. The total cost of the project was $44,020.

By letter, Campton also informed the mayor and aldermen that construction plans are nearly completed and construction should begin soon on replacing a failing and inadequate small bridge on Espy Avenue between the CSX railroad tracks and Demourelle Road.

The work is financed mainly through a federal grant, but Campton said the base and paving needed to tie into the new bridge at both ends was the city's responsibility.

That work is estimated to cost about $10,000, but the Harrison County Board of Supervisors has agreed to fund some or all of the city's share.

Qualifying continues for Waveland elections

BY BETSY GAGNET

The following candidates have officially entered the race for mayor in Waveland, filing a qualifying statement with City Secretary Lisa Planchard and paying the associated fee:

John C. Mason, Republican (incumbent); John "Tommy" Longo, Democrat (currently Ward 1 Alderman); and Deborah A. Richter, Republican.

In the four races for alderman, a total of nine candidates have filed a qualifying statement. The candidates are:

Ward 1: Milton Bernard,

Democrat, Jay Joseph Fountain, Democrat, and Nikki S. Tingstrom, Democrat.

Ward 2: Richard "Ricky" Geoffrey, Democrat.

Ward 3: Louis "Louie" Smolensky, Democrat (incumbent); and Ralph L. West, Jr., Democrat.

Ward 4: Ross C. Burke, Republican; Charles Piazza, Democrat; and Santo A. Saucier, Democrat.

Qualifying for the elections ends on Oct. 3 at noon. The Democratic and Republican primaries are scheduled for Nov. 3, and the general election is scheduled for Dec. 1.

amount to $2,400 each day for Bay St. Louis alone.

County attorney Gerald Gex was instructed to get a written opinion from the attorney general's office, but he said he had already spoken by phone to assistant AG Alice Wise.

After talking with Wise, Gex said, "I'm firmly convinced that this ordinance deals with public counties and municipalities and not private businesses."

He said GE, Wellman and other industries in the area provide their own medical response to emergency situations at their industrial sites, and there was no reason Casino Magic could not do the same.

While Gex awaits an AG opinion, Supervisors will invite AMR officials and Casino Magic personnel to a future meeting to try to resolve the feud.

Airport

has been awarded to the Airport Development Group out of Denver, Colorado, and planner Thomas Reed briefed officials on the steps that lie ahead.

"This is the first step in a lot of steps we'll be taking," said Reed. "I hope it will bear fruit and provide you with a plan to take the airport through the next 20 years."

Rams Black, the FAA's program manager out of Jackson, Miss., was also on hand for the presentation.

During the next few months, Reed said his firm will be taking an inventory of equipment and facilities in place at the airport, then come up with an aviation demand forecast, and a demand/capacity analysis. Consultants will later look at airside, landside, and property requirements, and suggest alternative development plans.

Reed said development of the master plan for Stennis is the key element needed to land federal funding for a coveted instrument landing system (ILS) at Stennis.

That would make Stennis an "all weather airport," helping it to attract many new customers, especially the large cargo carriers.

Consultants will also come up with an airport layout plan and map that will be used to develop the main airport and the adjoining business and industrial park.

Along the way, Reed said there will be environment assessments, and cost estimates on developing and marketing the future airport.

Reed told P&H Commissioners that the final master plan is about nine months away, and once the final document is developed, there will be times set aside for public informational meetings and public hearings to inform citizens about environmental concerns.

MDEQ releases results on beach monitoring program

The Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) released the results of an intensive beach monitoring program. Beginning in June 1997, water samples were collected and analyzed weekly for fecal coliform bacteria from 20 sites along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Results of this effort show a marked improvement when compared to bacteria collected just a few years ago. The results indicate that, under normal conditions, the bacteria levels were well within the range considered suitable for swimming.

Results also confirmed that the rise in bacteria levels in areas around stormwater outlets following heavy rains are less severe than those observed in earlier studies. However, MDEQ cautions swimmers not to swim in areas around stormwater outlets within 24 hours of heavy rains.

Fecal coliforms, a group of bacteria associated with waste from warm-blooded animals, are commonly used as an indication of potential health risk. Heavy rains can wash bacteria, including some that can cause illness, into the surf via storm water drains.

High concentrations of bacteria may persist in the surf for several hours after a rain and may increase a swimmers risk of illness. Children, the elderly, and people with weakened immune systems have a greater chance of becoming ill when contacting contaminated water.

The public is also cautioned about allowing the very young to swim. Babies and toddlers in diapers can be a source of bacterial contamination. In order to protect other swimmers, parents are urged not to allow diapered children in swimming areas.

Average fecal coliform levels in 1997 were well below the standard even when samples collected after storm water runoff events were included in the calculations. This dramatic improvement in bacteria levels reflects the progress coastal communities have made over the past 25 years in installing and improving sewage collection and treatment systems.

MDEQ allows no direct discharges of wastewater in the Sound, however, storm water drains along the beach do carry urban runoff from nearby commercial and residential areas during rainfall events. This storm water can contain bacteria, primarily from animal droppings.

MDEQ has formed a beach monitoring task force made up of scientists, epidemiologists and physicians from MDEQ, the Mississippi State Department of Health (MSD), the Mississippi Department of Marine Resources (MDMR), EPA's Gulf of Mexico Program and the University of Southern Mississippi's Gulf Coast Research Laboratory (GCRL).

The monitoring, conducted for MDEQ by GCRL, and funded in part by a grant from the Gulf of Mexico Program, is continuing year round.

Information or copies of the data may be obtained by contacting the Mississippi Beach Monitoring Task Force at 601-961-5143 or MDOH at 601-960-7725.

MPC grant will help Culinary Arts

A $100,000 grant from Mississippi Power Company will build and equip a state-of-the-art teaching kitchen for the University of Southern Mississippi Gulf Coast's Culinary Arts Academy.

The kitchen will be constructed adjacent to a former private residence at 119 Beach Park Place on the western side of USM's Gulf Park campus. The residence was purchased by the university for renovation and expansion to house classrooms, offices and other operations of the two-year-old academy.

"As the university works to meet the increasingly diversified educational needs of the Coast, the support of businesses such as Mississippi Power helps assure our success," said Dr. Jim Williams, vice president of USMGC.

"This grant will certainly contribute to our goal of making our culinary arts program the very best possible."

The Culinary Arts Academy is designed to teach students the basics of food production and also develop understanding of tastes, skills and food presentation demanded at all levels of the hospitality industry on the Coast.

The academy offers students the choice of a nine-month certificate or 18-month diploma curriculum.

"In our ongoing support of education, we felt the Culinary Arts Academy was an excellent example of an innovative approach to meeting a real need," said Ed Blakeslee, Mississippi Power's vice president of customer services and marketing.

"As food service opportunities increase along with the growing hospitality industry on the Coast, it is important for us to have the means to make those opportunities available to area residents."

Renovation and expansion of the existing structure, construction of the kitchen, refurbishing of an on-site cottage to house academy offices and improvement of parking areas will be completed at a total estimated cost of about $350,000, according to Katherine Lochridge, director of the academy and USMGC Conference Center.

School district seeks students with disabilities

The Hancock County School District is participating in an ongoing state effort to locate and evaluate children from birth through age 21 who have disabilities and who are not enrolled in school.

The school district provides services for the following disabilities: speech/language, specific learning disabled, educationally disabled, visually impaired, hearing impaired, physically disabled, multi-handicapped, emotionally disabled.

The Perfect Fit to highlight library's children's story hour

"The Perfect Fit" will be the theme for the children's story hour at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library Wednesday, Sept. 23, at 10:30 a.m. Susan Daigre, program coordinator, will read Inch by Inch, Moving Day and Polka and Dot. Children will also decorate shells.

Weekly story hours are held September through May. Programs last approximately a half hour. The Kiln Library hosts a abled, and developmentally delayed.

Early identification of children in need of special education services is most important to each child. Furthermore, the information gathered from contact with parents and other agencies will be used to help determine present and future program needs. This will aid in our progress toward a goal of providing a free and appropriate public education to all disabled children in Hancock County School District.

Information that could identify the disabled individuals is protected by the school district in accordance with the Family Rights and Privacy Act and EHAB. Parents also have the right to inspect information about a child and challenge its accuracy.

Persons with disabled children who are 21 years old or younger, are encouraged to contact Hancock County Child Find Coordinator Barbara Franklin. Her address is 6069 Cuevas Town Road, Kiln, MS 39566, phone 228-255-6626 or 255-0376.

Dr. Franklin will assist parents in having their children evaluated and placed in or referred to appropriate programs.

Receives ring

Brother Ronald Hingle, SC, principal of St. Stanislaus, gives the traditional St. Stanislaus senior ring to Jamie Cuevas, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cuevas III of Kiln. All seniors of the 145th graduating class received their class rings at a special mass and ceremony.

St. Stanislaus seniors receive class rings

St. Stanislaus held its annual Senior Ring Mass and Ceremony Sept. 8 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis. The Rev. Dennis Carver led the celebration, blessing the class rings and offering words of inspiration and reflection to the senior class of 1999.

The senior class of 1999 follows a tradition set many years ago at St. Stanislaus. Each senior received a cigar-band ring inscribed with school history dating back to 1854.

Brother Ronald Hingle, principal, and Susan Estrade, Fred Cherota and Chuck Genin, assistant principals, led the distribution of the rings.

Participating in the Senior Ring Mass and Ceremony were David Altaba, Brad Aubert, Alex Bahlburg, Brett Barbazon, James Barrera, Benton Bender, Jace Bourgeois, Thomas Brennan V., Nicholas Broekman, Lonnie Burch, Thomas Burleson Jr., David Byrne Jr., Joseph Carambat IV, John Chilimigras, Laurence Coker, Benjamin Cowand, Brian Cowand, Norman Cowand Jr., Jamie Cuevas, Rodney Cuevas, Michael Dauro;

Dealing with dehydration

Many people are not aware of the dangers of isotonic dehydration, which can be serious, especially for the elderly. Caused by diarrhea and vomiting, this type of dehydration cannot be effectively treated just by drinking more water, but requires restoration of both water and electrolytes.

According to medical professionals, older people are particularly prone to dehydration because of their reduced thirst sensation, intolerance to heat and decreased kidney function. Scientists at Ross Products Division, Abbott Laboratories, have developed a product called Equalyte which, given at the first sign of diarrhea or vomiting, can help replace the lost fluids and electrolytes.

Equalyte, which can be used for oral or tube feeding, helps protect against the serious consequences of dehydration, including stroke, kidney failure and death.

To learn more about the product, you can ask your doctor or call 1-800-544-7495.

Mentoring project director hired

The Gulf Coast Education Initiative Consortium recently hired Senita Walker as project director for the Gulf Coast Master Teacher Mentoring Project, a program designed to work with teachers participating in the National Board Certification process.

The purpose is to strengthen the teaching-learning process in Mississippi classrooms. Teachers will receive training, workshops and other support services to assist them in completing the certification process.

Walker holds a bachelor's degree from Mississippi College and a master's degree from Mississippi State University. She also has a specialist's degree in education from the University of Southern Mississippi.

In addition to 29 years experience as a classroom teacher, Walker is also National Board Certified.

Most recently walker worked as a gifted education teacher in the Hattiesburg Public School District.

The Gulf Coast Education Initiative is a unique partnership between NASA's Stennis Space Center, the University of Southern Mississippi, educators and school administrators to support the efforts of six counties in Mississippi, one parish in Louisiana and two Catholic dioceses to develop a quality education system in those areas.

For information, contact the Gulf Coast Education Initiative Consortium at (228) 867-8769 or (228) 688-3842.

Coast Episcopal announces plans for fund raiser

The award-winning 'Toast to the Coast,' Coast Episcopal School's annual fund raiser, will staged Friday, Oct. 16 on the grounds of the historic beachfront home of Mrs. William A. Hines, 519 East Scenic Drive, Pass Christian.

"St. Rose de Lima Choir will raise their voices early in the evening followed by Vieux Carre, a popular New Orleans band," said Brenda Comer, event co-chair.

Cost for the 'Toast to the Coast' patron program begins at $200 and includes the 1998 Patron favor, the sterling silver Living Oak pin designed by Bay St. Louis artist Ellis Anderson, Comer said.

Tickets for the annual event may be purchased in advance from area businesses for $60 or for $65 at the door the night of the event. For more information phone 228 467-5125.

SSC Radio Club

John Chilimigras, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chilimigras of Bay St. Louis, makes contact with retired New York school teacher and founder of the School Club Round Up Marty Smith in New York to increase SSC's odds at becoming the champion national amateur radio operator team.

SSC amateur radio operators maintain top position in the country

The Amateur Radio Operators of St. Stanislaus were recognized in the September 1998 issue of the publication QST, a national radio journal, as the fourth place team in the country.

The St. Stanislaus team finished competing nationally in the School Club Round-Up in February. The competition, lasting one week, encourages young radio voices around the continental U.S. to make radio contact with as many people around the world as possible, establish a clear contact by using codes derived from the Morse code, and record their positions via computer.

The SSC radio team operated from WD51AD, their Federal Communications Commission (FCC) radio call letter location. In a matter of five days, the St. Stanislaus team made contact with 337 geographic locations including 45 states and 19 countries.

After competing against the 40-plus schools and colleges from around the United States, the St. Stanislaus team will enjoy maintaining their national top-five ranking.

Brother Eduardo Baldioceda, SC, began the HAM Radio Club and has taught amateur radio operation to St. Stanislaus students since 1978.

The seven St. Stanislaus team members for the School Club Round UP for 1998 include

The labor pain no one talks about.

Performing the same task over and over everyday can put unnecessary strain on almost every part of your body. Your arms, shoulders, neck, and back can all be affected by constant repetitive motion. If you work a 9 to 5 job and are experiencing pain, talk to someone who can help. Because the pain you experience from labor, is the pain no one else wants to hear about. ### SSC fellowship elects 1998-99 officers

The St. Stanislaus chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) has selected 1998-99 officers, including David Byrne, president, son of Dr. and Mrs. David Byrne of Pass Christian; Travis Fucich, vice president, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kris Fucich of Lakeshore; Ashley Piazza, treasurer, son of S. Julia Piazza of Waveland; Neil Favre, secretary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Favre Jr. of Bay St.

Louis; and Nick Middleton, membership chairman, son of Sarah Middleton of Bay St. Louis.

The chapter of this national organization, under the direction of chairman and coach Stan Dellenger, has raised money and collected numerous gifts that were given to deserving families in the community over the past three years since the chapter's inception in 1995. Stanislaus parents are also taking an active role in the development and activities of the organization. Leading the way is Club Mother Jane Byrne.

"The club will be working on many projects this year in the community and on campus. We give Thanksgiving baskets, Christmas gifts and Easter baskets to needy families," said David Byrne, FCA president. "We will also hold our second leadership breakfast for the members of the club."

Techno Hawks

New video series offers help, hope for Alzheimer's caregivers

Four million Americans, one in ten over 65 and one in three over 80, are stricken with Alzheimer's Disease, a progressive neurological illness affecting memory and reason.

It is the fourth leading cause of death among American adults. But the devastation of this disease extends far beyond patients and medical fees. The Alzheimer caregiver is often the "other victim" of Alzheimer's.

To help caregivers understand the complexities of Alzheimer's disease and to prepare them for the progression of the disease and how to make essential choices for daily care, the Long Island Alzheimer's Foundation (LIAF) has developed Living with Alzheimer's, a comprehensive three-part video series. Highlights of the series include:

* Part one. "Understanding Alzheimer's" features experienced caregivers and experts who discuss the disease, what to expect and the importance of long-term planning.

* Part two. "Choices in Caregiving" shows the caregiver how to seek help, deal with the anxieties of family and friends and prepare the home for the Alzheimer's sufferer.

* Part three. "Challenges of Caregiving" presents the thoughts of caregivers about handling the guilt, denial, self-neglect and depression that frequently accompany their seemingly thankless roles.

According to Janet Walsh, LIAF board chairman, "The video tapes, which run approximately 35 minutes each, are ideal for use by support-group leaders, health-care professionals and family members dealing with Alzheimer's sufferers."

To find out where you can view the series in your community or purchase a copy for yourself or a loved one, call 1-800-399-2244.

Living with Alzheimer's is funded by a grant from Hoechst-Roussel Pharmaceuti-als Inc., with additional support from the Grumman Corporation.

You: inpatient or outpatient

Understanding Social Security & Medicare

By Martha A. McStein

Did you realize you can be hospitalized for days and still be considered an outpatient?

Medicare has no set rules about what constitutes an outpatient or an inpatient. You may ask what difference that makes to you, the patient. It can make a difference in two ways.

First, if you are hoping to receive coverage in a skilled nursing home following the hospital stay, you must have been hospitalized as an inpatient for a minimum of three days. Medicare does not cover skilled care in a nursing home following outpatient services.

Second, the amount you are charged for the hospital stay can vary considerably. Inpatient care is covered by Part A of Medicare, outpatient care by Part B.

For example, Mr. H. stayed overnight in a hospital for the adjustment of his heart medication. He left the next afternoon for a total of 23 hours. His bill came to $1,230. He was billed as an inpatient under Part A and was therefore liable for the deductible of $676.

Had his stay been charged as an outpatient, Part B rules would be in effect and he would have paid 20 percent of the hospital charges.

However, you cannot generalize that it is always cheaper to be an outpatient. Currently there is no limit to the number of days the hospital can keep you as an outpatient. If you stay for several days as an outpatient and have to pay 20 percent of the total charges, it may be more expensive than the inpatient deductible of $676.

So make sure you ask your

Adult Literacy Education

The Hancock County Library System sponsors an Adult Literacy Education Program at the Waveland Library, 333 Coleman Avenue, Waveland.

Classes provided include GED, basic skills, reading one-on-one, reading classes and more.

Day classes are Monday through Thursday. Evening classes are Mondays and Thursdays.

To register or for information, call Donna Hutchings at 467-9240.

Alzheimer Support Group

Al-Anon/BSL

Al-Anon, Bay St. Louis chapter, meets Monday, and Friday at 8 p.m. at 300 Third Street, Bay St. Louis.

Al-Anon is designed for families and friends who are affected by someone else's drinking. For information, call 466-5780.

American Cancer Society

Assistance to victims of cancer is available through Hancock and Harrison county chapters of the American Cancer Society.

Necessary items for patients, such as dressings, ostomy and sick-room supplies are available to those in need. Equipment which may be loaned to patients includes wheelchairs and hospital beds.

Assistance is available for transportation to qualifying hospitals. Several rehabilitation programs are offered, including "Reach To Recovery", in which volunteers who have had mastectomies visit new breast cancer patients (with approval of physician) to assist in emotional, physical and psychological rehabilitation.

Battered Women

Free counseling is offered for Hancock County women suffering from emotional or physical abuse. Gwen Beck, outreach coordinator with Gulf Coast Women's Center, is available each Wednesday, 10 a.m.-noon at the Hancock County Youth Court building on Court Street.

All cases are confidential. Call 435-1968 collect for appointment.

The Gulf Coast Women's Center, a United Way agency, also offers an advocacy program for victims of sexual assault and domestic violence. A 24-hour crisis line is available by calling 1-800-800-1396.

doctor whether he or she admitted you as an inpatient or as an outpatient — it makes a difference!

You can learn more about issues of special concern to older Americans, including Social Security and Medicare, by joining the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare, an organization devoted to improving retirement income and health care.

Public Notice

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) has completed its evaluation of Clean Up Area B at the John C. Stennis Space Center in Hancock County, Mississippi, and has identified Alternatives SD-2 and GW-6 as the clean up remedies. Alternative SD-2 includes the excavation and disposal of sediment. Ditch sediments will be excavated and disposed of at SSC's state-permitted non-hazardous waste landfill. The ditch will be backfilled with clean fill. Alternative GW-6 includes pumping and treatment of contaminated groundwater and natural attenuation. Contaminated groundwater has been extracted using a series of extraction wells, treated using ultraviolet oxidation and discharged. Use of this system would be discontinued when the contaminant concentrations level off and pumping is no longer effective in extracting contaminants. The remaining contaminant levels would be reduced by natural degradation. The Decision Document for Area B and the reports on which it was based are available for review at an information repository at the following location:

Hancock County Library, 312 Hwy 90, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520, 228-467-5282. The Decision Document for Area B is also available for review at the following area libraries: Gulfport-Harrison County Library, Waveland Library, Kilm Public Library, St. Tammany Parish Library (Slidell), Margaret Reed Crosby Library (Poyauve), NASA's Environmental Officer, Mr. Ronald G. Mary Cooley is a practicing paralegal and real estate closing specialist working in Gulfport at the Breard Law Firm. Mary, studying at Jefferson Davis Junior College and the University of Southern Mississippi, completed her paralegal studies in 1982 and worked as a paralegal until 1990 when she obtained her real estate license.

Recognizing that closing a loan can be an exhilarating and intimidating experience for the buyer and sellers alike, Mary strives to ensure all are comfortable about the process they are undergoing while at the same time making it a pleasant and memorable experience.

Working with buyers is one rewarding aspect of closing loans, the other according to Mary, is working with the diverse and professional group of people involved in the whole process from the mortgage companies to the real estate agents and everyone in between.

Sharon Moran started working in the banking industry in '73 as a bank teller. In '77 she was promoted to the mortgage department where she worked herself up to Assistant Vice President of secondary Marketing, which included a number of responsibilities - marketing the loans, setting interest rates, closing loans, shipping and auditing. She also processed and originated mortgage loans, which she continues to do.

In 1993 Sharon helped to open a new mortgage company for two local businessmen. They sold their business to Dryades Mortgage 1-1/2 years ago and asked Sharon to remain.

Dryades Mortgage is a division of Dryades Savings Bank in New Orleans. One of Dryades Bank's most important goals is to become known as a bank where fast, efficient and personal service is a way of life. This philosophy appeals to Sharon and her dedicated staff because she believes this is the difference between the mortgage lenders today.

The "WORD" for the Week

Dennis J. Prutow, Box 303, Sterling, KS 67579

Famous Baptist preacher Charles Spurgeon has a devotional book called Morning and Evening. He suggests Bible readings and prayer devotional thoughts for use in the morning when you roll out of bed and in the evening before you crawl back into bed.

Many churches also maintain the practice of morning and evening worship on the first day of every week. Why morning and evening?

The idea goes back to ancient Israel. God required the people to offer regular sacrifices. "You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight" (Numbers 28:4).

Israel worshipped morning and evening. "Then on the Sabbath lay two male lambs one year old without defect. This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath in addition to the continual burnt offering" (Numbers 28:9-10). They doubled their morning and evening sacrifices each Sabbath.

Hebrews 13:15 connects us with these sacrifices. "Through Him then, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is,

Morning and evening worship

the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name." We enter God's presence through Christ. We offer Him sacrifices. We give Him praise coming from thankful hearts and lips. This is a pattern. Christians should read the Bible and pray each morning and evening and attend worship with God's people each Lord's Day morning and evening.

TV taping scheduled at church

A television taping sponsored by The Southeasters Promotion of Gulfport, will be held Sunday, Sept. 20 at Mount Chapel Baptist Church, Herby St., Waveland.

Rev. H.S. Dunn, pastor said, "Officers and members of Mount Chapel Baptist Church are inviting the public, members of our neighboring churches, our sisters and brothers in Christ to come and fellowship with us at the 11 a.m. service on Sept. 20 for the TV taping."

A dinner will be served following the worship service.

Theater ministry

Two members of the Covenant Players, who also happen to be a husband and wife team, are shown performing a skit at Main Street United Methodist Church in Bay St. Louis based on a man trying to talk his way into Heaven.

Theater ministry brings message to Methodists

The Covenant Players, a non-profit international theater ministry, specializing in community theater, recently presented a special performance during the 11 a.m. worship service at Main Street United Methodist Church in Bay St. Louis.

The Covenant Players are made up of over 120 teams traveling worldwide performing plays dealing with issues such as drug and alcohol abuse, values, goals, positive self-image, ethics and morality. The teams are performing constantly, serving schools, corporations, military bases, churches, hospitals and retirement homes throughout 82 countries and six continents in over 20 languages.

The Covenant Players are a non-endowed, non-profit corporation whose financial support is derived from the performing engagements and other donations.

Bay pastor earns Phd

Richard Johnson, the new pastor of First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis, recently fulfilled the requirements for a doctoral degree at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

Completion of the degree involved two years of full-time course work, a series of written exams, an oral exam, research and writing of a dissertation and an oral defense of the dissertation before a seminary faculty panel.

Johnson's dissertation was titled "The Sociological Function of the Critique of the Levitical System in the Epistle of the Hebrews." In this study he concluded that the New Testament document known as "The Epistle of the Hebrews" was written to promote openness to and acceptance of outsiders in the church.

"Creating an open society within the church is vital if the church is to fulfill its mission. Each generation of Christians must hear and embrace the message of Hebrews," Johnson said. Official awarding of the Ph.D. in New Testament to Rev. Johnson will occur at the seminary's graduation ceremony in December.

Do Something Nice For Yourself

What did you do for yourself lately? Do you take mini-vacations on a regular basis and do something that you really enjoy for yourself? All work and no play can be harmful, not only to ourselves, but to our loved ones around us as well. We sometimes feel that we just don't have the time to sit down to read the newspaper, or watch television for an hour or so, or maybe play a round of golf. We feel a little guilty, because we believe that we have all these things that have to be done. Now don't get me wrong, those of us who are able to work should be expected to do a fair day's work, but, a change of pace by doing something for yourself is important to keep a healthy perspective on life. Little diversions from life's stressful situations can help us to be a healthier and better person. It pleases God when we are good, not only to our neighbors, but also to ourselves. We are temples of the Holy Spirit and we should take care of ourselves. There is nothing wrong with doing something nice for yourself.

Do you not know that you are God's Temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

Coast Oktoberfest scheduled in Biloxi

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Oktoberfest '98 will mark its 22 year, a celebration that was originally organized as part of the Gulfport Chamber of Commerce SONO (September, October, November, December) program to boost tourism on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

This year's celebration will be on the 25th through the 27th of September and on the 2nd through the 4th of October under a huge tent outside Kepner's Gasthaus, Mississippi's only German restaurant on Hwy. 90 in Biloxi.

Oktoberfest is an international celebration at this time of the year to commemorate the wedding of King Ludwig of Bavaria to Princess Theresa. It is an annual family form of entertainment, and admission is free.

The public is invited to join the famous international celebration which started in Munich, Germany over 150 years.

Most of the male guests who come to the celebration come attired in Lederhosen, and the ladies wear their Dirndl, the costume worn in that part of Germany.

Die Lustigen 4 (The Happy Four) Band from Stuttgart, Germany, will provide the music at both weekends.

Numerous contests, like the best costume (male and female category), beer drinking (both male and female category), Chicken Dance (children, young adults, adults and golden years category), Polka, Hit The Nail (male, female and golden years category), and Log Sawing are scheduled each day of the celebration.

Food will be prepared by German chefs, offering several choices of German beer, and German gift items will be sold at this event.

To those who cannot attend the Oktoberfest celebration in Biloxi this year, the Coast Oktoberfest '98 celebration will provide the music, food, beer and fun on this side of the globe.

Gatlinburg celebrates Smoky Mountain Harvest Festival

How does the mountain community of Gatlinburg gear up for its second annual Harvest Festival? By having an old-fashioned hayride. The rides will run from Sept. 22 through Oct. 29 and will hearken back to the days of yore by giving participants a true taste of fall air and family fun.

The hayrides will take place on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, 6-10 p.m., with rides loading every 15 minutes on River Road behind Mountain Mall in Gatlinburg.

Those tractors are pulling flatbeds filled with hay for a great cause. All monies raised will be donated to the United Way of Sevier County.

Gatlinburg will also celebrate the Harvest Festival with great taste. A Taste of Autumn will offer the finest recipes of Gatlinburg's best restaurants. The event will take place Sept. 24 at 5:30 p.m. in Mills Auditorium.

Entertainment will be lively and local. Gatlinburg's own Billy Baker of Hillbilly Hoedown will perform along with Hillbilly Hoedown pickers Andy Wood, April Johnson and Michael McCoig.

Other performers will include Gatlinburg Jazz band Deja Blues, Wild Mountain

Honey, Gatlinburg-Pittman High School students Seth Waters and Rebecca Marine and members of the Gatlinburg Community Chorale.

There will be an auction of original art and craft pieces. Tickets cost $20 and will be available at Gatlinburg City Hall, Gatlinburg Welcome Centers, The Hillbilly Hoedown box office and Gatlinburg branches of Mountain National Bank, BankFirst, Tennessee State Bank, and Citizens National Bank.

Other Gatlinburg area Harvest Festival events include Gatlinburg Craftsmen's Fair Oct. 7-25; Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts' National Baskets Exhibition, Sept. 18-Oct. 10; Heidelberg Restaurant's Oktoberfest, Sept. 18-Oct. 31; Hillbilly Hoedown's Harvest Show, Sept. 24-Nov. 11; Great Smokies Mega Theater's Great Smoky Mountain Heritage Exhibition, Sept. 30-Oct. 1; Great Smoky Arts & Crafts Community's Fall Harvest of Crafts, Oct. 1-31; Old-Time Crafters Jambo-ree, Sept. 25-27.

For information on any of the Gatlinburg Harvest Festival events call Gatlinburg Department of Tourism at (423) 430-4148 or 1-800-267-7088.

French Quarter garden tour

Patio Planters — Vieux Carre — is celebrating 52 years as the Garden Club of the Vieux Carre.

The group is sponsoring 'Secret Gardens of the French Quarter,' with proceeds to fund the 52nd annual Christmas Caroling in Jackson Square enjoyed by thousands the Sunday before Christmas.

Eight gardens of the French Quarter will be open each day for a special tour. These 16 private gardens are not otherwise open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

The tour is set for Saturday, Oct. 3 and Sunday, Oct. 4. Cost is $10 per day. The homes will be open noon-4 p.m.

Tickets are available at Louisiana Products, 507 St. Ann Street, across from Jackson Square, beginning Sept. 19 and on the day of the tour at 1032 Royal Street.

Call 504-522-5524 for information.

Public ice skating set to begin Thursday

The ArenaRink at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum will open for public ice skating Thursday, Sept. 24 with a special two-hour "Skate with the Sea Wolves" from 7-9 p.m.

The first public ice skating session is on sale now at the Coliseum box office for $8 per person. Ice skates are included in the rental price. Skaters who bring their own skates get $1 off the ticket price. Discounts are available for groups of 10 or more.

Two "After Game" skating sessions are also scheduled for September when the ArenaRink opens to the public at 10:30 p.m. for skating each night after the International Hockey League Exhibition Games on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 25 and 26.

Stuffed Bell Peppers with Pork, Beef & Shrimp

• 6 large bell peppers cut in half end to end. Remove the core and seeds, then wash them • 8 slices of bacon fried and chopped, reserve the drippings • 1 large yellow onion chopped fine • 1 medium bell pepper chopped fine • 4 ribs of celery chopped fine • 2 tocs of garlic chopped fine • ¼ cup chopped fresh parsley • ½ tsp. ground thyme • ½ lb. ground pork • 1 lb. ground beef • 1 lb. cooked small shrimp • 2 cups cooked rice • 2 large eggs slightly beaten • 3 dashes of hot sauce • salt & pepper

In a large bowl place all the ingredients and combine them well. Fill the bell pepper halves. Place them into a casserole dish with 1 cup of water at the bottom. Place dish into a 350° oven for 1 hour or until the stuffing is done. Remove and cover the peppers with your favorite creole sauce. Cover the casserole dish and bake another 10 to 15 minutes
